8	I have a girl brain but a boy body. This is called transgender. I was born this way!
9	When I was very little, and my mom would say, "You're such a good boy." I would say, "No, Mama. Good girl."
10	At first my family was very confused. They'd always thought of me as a boy.
13	Sometimes my parents would let me wear my sister's dresses around the house. But whenever we went out, I had to put on my boy clothes again.
14	Pretending I was a boy felt like telling a lie.
15	Afterward, the doctor spoke to my parents and I heard the word "transgender" for the very first time.
17	Mom and Dad told me I could start wearing girl clothes to school, and growing my hair long. They even let me change my name to Jazz.
20	At the beginning of the year they wanted me to use the boys' bathroom, and play on the boys' team in gym class, but that didn't feel normal to me at ALL.
